Sticky buns

Grandma's Kitchen Challenge

Hosted by Pat Sloan At Ilovetomakequilts.com

Many a childhood memory involves food, which may be the 'love language' of grandmas everywhere. Neither of mine were necessarily the best cooks, but I still have great food memories.

I'm not sure if sticky buns are so massively popular all around the world, but they were the best thing ever to my family in Pennsylvania. A sticky bun is a sweet yeast roll. The dough is rolled flat, you sprinkle it with cinnamon and sugar. Then roll into a spiral. It is topped with a sticky cinnamon sugar glaze and chopped pecans nuts, or even half pecans pieces.

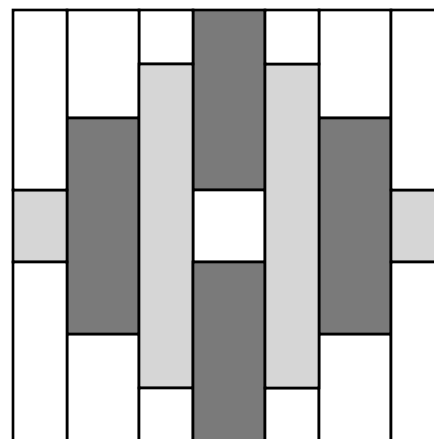

We serve them slightly warm. One grandma warmed them in her 'dutch oven' and the other did in the regular oven. My Granny bought them at the Farmer's Market where she worked. When she walked in with the beautiful white bakery boxes you never knew what sweet treat was inside!

For years I made my own sticky buns from scratch as there was no place to duplicate what my grandma had.

My Grandma's Kitchen challenge runs - June 28, 2017 to Nov 22, 2017.

We will be making a quilt with 25 blocks... and Somewhere along this journey I'll give you a setting.
