

Block 10/25

The Coffee Shop

One Hundred Eighty-Two Day Solstice Challenge
Hosted by Pat Sloan At Ilovetomakequilts.com

Sometimes I think about how things are different, but the same in many ways. Like the coffee shop. Years ago people had a cup of coffee with friends at the Diner counter, or the soda fountain counter in a drug store or department store that had a cafeteria (not a 'cafe'... right?). It was about being out of your own environment and maybe you'd see a neighbor, or make a new friend.

SQUARE Block to 12.5" x 12.5"
Finished in the quilt is Size 12"

Coffee shops are still a place to get away, people watch, get out of your own space. I work at home with just the shipping Department and I like to take a break and walk to my local coffee shop. They really do know my name, they say hello.. I sit outside for a bit.. Then go home

Very much like people have done for years. Have fun with my 'NO HST' block.. Wink!

The Solstice challenge spans 182 between the winter and summer Solstice this year. Well be making a quilt with 25 blocks... and Somewhere along this journey I'll give you a setting.
