Block 10 – The Library

Hosted by Pat Sloan At Ilovetomakequilts.com

As a kid my place to escape to after school was the library. I loved everything about it. The rows of books, the smell, the quiet where you could hear the pages turning from a few rows over. I went there to do everything from pick a fun read to get my science project information. Such as writing my paper on crawfish using details from lobsters...haha! I was in 6th grade .. I think I passed!

Block is 12.5" x 12.5"
 Finished size 12" x 12"

As an adult I loved taking out stacks of books for the weekend. Finding travel books for vacation trips, gardening and decorating books, all before we had the internet. Many libraries are hubs of activity. I've taught many workshops in the local libraries where I was hired to teach

I can't wait to hear your Library stories when you share your block!
