Block 11 – Let it grow

Hosted by Pat Sloan At llovetomakequilts.com

Do you have a tree that was planted when you were born, a favorite flower that your grandmother grew, a row of hedges you played in as kid? Our homes have an outside area that many of us fill with wonderful gardens, trees and Memories.

The first home my parents had they picked the lot. My mom selected one with lots of birch trees, it was gorgeous. We stayed a summer in New Hampshire for my dad's work and the home had a huge tree my brother climbed. My Na-Na's front yard had a spectacular hydrangea.

My love of flowers and gardens started when I was about 15 and bought my first begonia at the market in the Grand Place in Brussels Belgium. I'll tell you about my garden journey in my video today
