Block 13 – Playground Antics

Hosted by Pat Sloan At llovetomakequilts.com

It is so interesting how something triggers a memory.

When I found a piece of fabric with a playground scene on it that immediately took me back in time. We only lived one place with it's own playground. Tucked way in the back of the apartment complex. My friends and I spent so many wonderful hours playing there.

Block is 12.5" x 12.5"
Finished size 12" x 12"

In the spring the honeysuckle plants smelled divine. In the fall we had huge leaf piles to jump in. And all year there were swings, a slide and monkey bars. Going on the swings was my favorite thing to do there!

What playground piece is your favorite?
