

Block 25/25

Summer Rose

One Hundred Eighty-Two Day Solstice Challenge
Hosted by Pat Sloan At Ilovetomakequilts.com

You did it!! Block 25 of 25... a bed size quilt top sewn in just 182 days... with a few more days left to do the sashings and catch up! I have had a BLAST doing this and can't wait to do the next one starting June 28, 2017.

I'm ending the Solstice with a Summer Rose, the traditional Rosebud pieced block. Pink roses are my mom's favorite flower, and I grow wild roses in red.

This is also one of the first blocks I used in an early quilt pattern design for my company. You can use multiple fabrics or just 2, it is fantastic either way.

The Layout is at my website on the Solstice page. There is also a place to share a photo of your full quilt! Now to think about a narrow border to frame the quilt. If you decide to do 'Quilt as You Go' use the setting layout to quilt it in sections! Thank you for joining me, see you for the next one!

The Solstice challenge spans 182 days between the winter and summer Solstice this year. We'll be making a quilt with 25 blocks... and Somewhere along this journey I'll give you a setting.

Enter your email to get the notice of each new block, and join my online group to can share with everyone!
