Friday Night Lights. In some towns that's a football game, car racing, or some other type of great Friday night event everyone attends. It's a way to end the work week, blow off a little steam, meet your Friends, and have some fun!

I was in High School in Belgium, we played our football games on the weekends with all the same enthusiasm as a Friday night game has! In college we went to see Sprint Cars race, that was a great way to decompress from the week. Here in the winter we can go to the outdoor Ice Skating Pavilion and either skate or people watch!

Watch my video today and I'll tell a 'moment of fame' having to do with Football

See my website today for our Ambassadors favorites Friday Night Lights, then tell me about yours!
