

Block 4/25

Half a Modern

Grandma's Kitchen Challenge

Hosted by Pat Sloan At Ilovetomakequilts.com

I had two very different grandmas. A few things were similar, they were both working women with full time jobs. They also were not into domestic things like cooking, sewing, or any kinds of crafts. My Na-Na did not need the newest or most modern things. But Granny did. So I was thinking about their kitchens. This block reminds me of kitchen tile works and will make an amazing scrappy quilt! (See the end for a layout)

SQUARE Block to 12.5" x 12.5"

Finished in the quilt is Size 12"

So why 'Half a Modern'? Na-Na, who did not need modern things, did a half upgrade in her kitchen to 'Half a Modern' with a new fridge & stove. But no new cabinets or flooring. At the end of the kitchen was a really cool built-in cupboard. It had shelves all the way to the ceiling and the neatest things were stored in it. Granny on the other hand went with a modern kitchen from the start. Plus she got upgrades. Bigger Fridge and a dishwasher! I was fascinated by the dishwasher as it rolled out into the kitchen to be used. Her kitchen was packed with things. I'll bet she had the first microwave that came out, she loved modern things and gadgets.

My Grandma's Kitchen challenge runs - June 28, 2017 to Nov 22, 2017.

We will be making a quilt with 25 blocks... and Somewhere along this journey I'll give you a setting.
