Block 8/12 – Beauty Shop/Barber shop

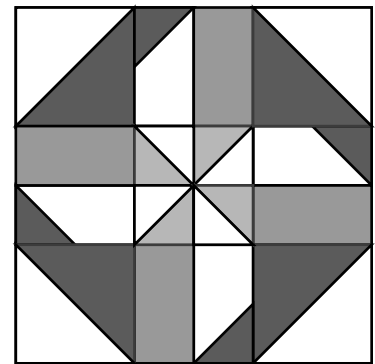

Hosted by Pat Sloan At Ilovetomakequilts.com

I can vividly remember walking over the bridge to the Beauty shop on Main street with my Na-Na. This wasn't just 'any' Beauty shop. This was a school for beauticians. We would walk down a flight of stairs and enter this room full of beautiful young women busy 'Doing Hair'. My Na-Na dyed her hair to keep it the pretty red she grew up with. She called her hair color 'Liquid Sunshine', which I suspect was the name of the color.

My pop-pop would take my brother along with him to the Barber shop. I always love the red, white, and blue poles outside!

I bet a lot of us have fun 'hair stories'.. taking your child for their first cut, getting a perm, trying to recreate that 'Farrah Fawcett' style .. which nobody could unless you had her incredible hair!
